

Choosing things and changing things

How do I change things?

I could write a letter to the person in charge...

I could ask somebody to help me write the letter...

I could find other people who want to change the same things...

We could all write the letter...

I could go and visit the person in charge and tell them what I think...

We could all go and see them!

